Master of Ceremonies

THE ROTARY PLEDGE

I do solemnly promise to help advance the object of Rotary, comply with the constitution and by-laws of Rotary International and the Rotary Club of Marikina, ever putting into practice Rotary's Motto: "SERVICE ABOVE SELF."

THE FOUR WAY TEST

Of things we think, say or do:

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and better FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

PRAYER

God our Father, You are awesome and worthy of all praises.

If we find ourselves in difficult circumstances, Your words offers the surprising instruction to count it all, knowing that the testing of our faith produces patience.

We seek You Father for wisdom that we might know how to respond properly to our trials, sorrow, and pain.

And let our confidence grow by trusting and obeying our Lord and His Word.

Give us the faith of a little child—a faith that will look to You that never will falter and never fail but follow You trustingly.

As we live by faith and do what the Bible clearly tells us to do, we can be sure that You will lead us through the difficult decision and give us victory. In everything we give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Amen.

Congratulations!

GOLDEN PRESIDENT

Pres. Jaime N. Cabalquinto

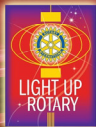

Last July 14, 2014 was a big event for all of us, specially to the Best Class Directors and Officers. It was the big Induction Day for the 13 clubs of Zone 4. I am very thankful to all of you for supporting our club. There were 40 Rotarians and 13 Spouses in our club who have witnessed the induction. Congratulations to all our Club Directors and Officers!

Our first of the Eight Medical and Dental Mission was held at IVC Covered Court. It was a very successful project of our club under the chairmanship of PRO Joel Relleve. Around 19 of our members attended with our Partners in Service. The City Government of Marikina, The Marikina Valley Medical Society, Office of the Vice Mayor, the Barangay officials of IVC and Vice Mayor/Past President Fabi Cadiz. Our gratitude to these partners in service.

It was very unfortunate that I was not able to join the overnight fellowship at Fontana of Kaibigan. I was so exhausted and got sick for several days but with no regrets since I saw that that many Rotarians have joined and had so much fun with videoke and playing golf. It was the kind of fellowship our club should always have.

Last July 22, 2014, The District had the Launching of Livelihood for Persons with Disabilities. A "Kabuhayan" Project hosted by RC WackWack and was held at the Bulwagang Karunungan Department of Education main office at Pasig. City. It was well participated by the zone 4 Best Class Team. Simultaneously, I have requested Vice President Chris Merino and Sec. Val Barcinal to represent our club to attend the coordination meeting of the Gabi niDolphy Concert and Film Showing at Marikina Sports Center. It is one of the pre-activities of our International River Summit which is a project under our Marikina Watershed Green Foundation.

Thank you to the hard work and dedication of Past President Dindo Santos for our Newly designed website. www.marikinarotary.org will be re-launched to night. New look and new features are included in our site. So, visit our website and see and update yourselves with the latest things in Rotary.

IN THE BEGINNING...

Trailblazers

As I was reflecting this morning and thinking what appropriate message I want to convey to readers of this article (I hope some are reading and getting something out of it), I came across a "Wise Word" with this quotation: "Every successful individual knows that his or her achievement depends on a community of persons working together". Then I keep remembering what we did in the past week worthy of writing in this column.

Last Monday, July 14, 2014 we had a joint induction and handover ceremony together with some Clubs of the Zone. It would have been better if we are all unified to have one single activity for the Zone and enjoy the fellowship of ALL members of the zone. But this is a democratic country and you cannot force anybody to toe the line when it comes to organized unified activity for the Zone.

And this was my sentiments when President Dodjie intimated to me his disappointment when one president of another club organized a medical mission without consulting him before announcing the plan during their breakfast meeting. He was worried it may cause trouble or disagreement among the other president of the zone if he openly opposed or question their plan without discussing it first with the whole group. He is supposed to be the acting leader of the Zone.

Initially that president had the gall to call it a zone activity and invited "gullible" president who want to take advantage of the situation so that they could easily have "medical mission" on their reports included. I was by President Dodjie not to "make a mountain of out a mole" but I could not resist the temptation to share it to all when my president's leadership is undermined by somebody in the zone. It could happen again in the future and I believed we have to project a strong stand against moved of somebody trying to undermine the leadership of our president.

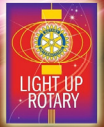

Then when I was continue my daily reflection I came across this very significant lesson: "The humble of heart receive understanding. There is only one thing that can open a closed, confused, and divided mind - a broken heart and humble spirit! The word disciple means one who is willing to learn and ready to submit to the wisdom and truth which comes from God."

So I let my hot steam diffuses, I realize the lesson about humility. Just let the situation pass. It will be a lesson learn and be understanding of the ignorance of others. There are many lesson to be learn here when somebody try to question, belittle or undermine you capability as a leadership, keep you cool, be humble and just smile it off and charge it to experience. Am I right on this? What do you think?

Going back to that quotation with this quotation: "Every successful individual knows that his or her achievement depends on a community of persons working together". We as the trailblazer in this zone so we must work together to support our president in total unison. Let us not let this happen again.

WEBSITE

A website, is a set of related web pages served from a single web domain. A website is hosted on at least one web server, accessible via a network such as the Internet or a private local area network through an Internet address known as a Uniform resource locator (URL). All publicly accessible websites collectively constitute the World Wide Web.

A webpage is a document, typically written in plain text interspersed with formatting instructions of Hypertext Markup Language (HTML, XHTML). A webpage may incorporate elements from other websites with suitable markup anchors.

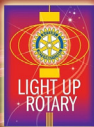

Websites are accessed and transported with the Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP), which may optionally employ encryption (HTTP Secure, HTTPS) to provide security and privacy for the user of the webpage content. The user's application, often a web browser, renders the page content according to its HTML markup instructions onto a display terminal.

The World Wide Web (WWW) was created in 1990 by the British CERN physicist Tim Berners-Lee. On 30 April 1993, CERN announced that the World Wide Web would be free to use for anyone.

Websites have many functions and can be used in various fashions; a website can be a personal website, a commercial website, a government website or a non-profit organization website. Websites can be the work of an individual, a business or other organization, and are typically dedicated to a particular topic or purpose. Any website can contain a hyperlink to any other website, so the distinction between individual sites, as perceived by the user, can be blurred.

The Rotary's official website is www.rotary.org. Creation date was on April 13, 1999 (from whois.net). The new Rotary website was created in September 2013. This site reflects valuable input from Rotary members like you – plus new ideas we've developed to help you get more out of the site. The result is a faster, cleaner, state-of-the-art site. The site was organized the site around your needs, making it easier for you to find what you're looking for and get your Rotary business done.

The Rotary Club of Marikina went online in June 13, 2001 with our own RC Marikina website. The District 3800 website followed after a few months. We started with the domain www.rcmarikina.org and later changed to www.marikinarotary.org in 2007, to conform with the prescribed Rotary domain.

DIGITALLY YOURS

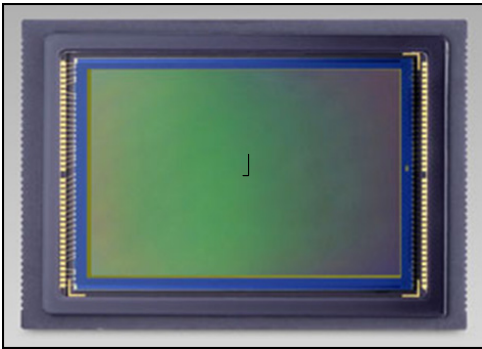

Dir. Joey C. Ramos II

BASICS OF PHOTOGRAPHY: THE COMPLETE GUIDE

Continuation

The Sensor and CPU

The sensor is the part of your camera that captures the light exposure filtered through the lens. For our intents and purposes, we're just going to call this the image. The way the sensor was produced, and how large or small it is, has a pretty big effect on the end result: your photograph.

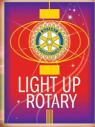

First of all, the size of the sensors matters. Compact point-and-shoot cameras have very small sensors and the difference in size between them is a smaller factor when choosing a camera. When it comes to cameras with interchangeable lenses, which include DSLRs and MILC/CSC/EVIL cameras (which are basically compact, mirrorless DSLR-like cameras that often—but not always—have smaller sensors), sensor size has a greater impact. Generally larger sensors provide better low-light performance, greater control over depth of field, and produce higher resolution images with less noise than a smaller sensor.

The majority of DSLRs have a sensor size most commonly known as APS-C. An APS-C sensor is about half the size of a frame of 35mm film and generally magnifies all lenses by a factor of 1.6x. This means that using a 35mm lens on a DSLR with an APS-C sensor is basically the same as using a 56mm lens on a regular 35mm camera. This is good news for telephoto lenses but bad news for wide angle, as every lens isn't as wide as advertised when placed on an APS-C-based camera. A 10mm fish eye lens will produce photos like a 16mm wide-angle lens. It's not a major downside for most people, but it's important to know.

Some higher-end DSLRs contain full-frame sensors, such as the popular Canon 5D Mark II, which is equivalent to the size of a frame of 35mm film. Full-frame sensor DSLRs have the previously mentioned benefits that come with large sensors, but also are not subject to the 1.6x magnification like you'll find with APS-C sensors. Basically, a full-frame sensor DSLR is about as close as you're going to get to 35mm film with a digital camera.

While sensor design is very relevant to the image quality, and the only way you're going to be able to judge that quality for certain is to see or produce sample images, you should pay attention to the sensor's megapixel rating. In general, the more megapixels packed into a sensor the more noise you'll find in a given image. This is why you don't necessarily want to choose a camera with a high megapixel rating—especially when a camera has a smaller sensor. For most people, even a 6.3 megapixel camera is sufficient, but anywhere from 8-10 should be more than sufficient. The point is, don't just buy one camera over the other because it has a higher megapixel count. It may produce noisier, less-desirable results so you should always test first.

Dolphy's family supports 2nd Int'l River Summit concert in Marikina

(The Philippine Star) | Updated July 22, 2014 - 12:00am

MANILA, Philippines - The children of Comedy King Dolphy support the second International River Summit through the Dolphy Clean Up, the first game application featuring a Philippine icon.

A fun and educational game application that aims to create awareness on the importance of protecting the environment and educate the children on the proper trash segregation and disposal, the said application will be launched on July 25 at the Marikina Sports Center in a star-studded tribute titled Minsan Tayo'y Nagkasama Dolphy.

The event is supported by Smart Communications which will set up a booth that will give guests a chance to try the game app.

According to Dolphy Para sa Pinoy Foundation executive director Yenny Gonzales, the said app's main purpose of educating the public on the importance of caring for the environment is in line with the second International River Summit with theme Reviving Rivers, Rebuilding Civilizations.

Moreover, the support of the Quizon family to the second International River Summit is further strengthened by Ronnie Quizon, through his company, Fore & Aft Management, the summits's exclusive event and marketing arm. According to the company's managing director, Marijo Viray, Ronnie has been a strong advocate of river protection since the Piso para sa Pasig Movement, a project of former First Lady Ming Ramos. She also added that their company was also involved in the first International River Summit held in Iloilo City in May 2012.

The second International River Summit is hosted by Marikina City in partnership with the Rotary Club of Marikina, in collaboration with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR), League of Cities of the Philippines (LCP), Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG) and Metro Manila Development Authority (MMDA). It will be held on Nov. 19 to 21 at the Marikina Hotel and Convention Center. International and local experts in the field of river and environmental management will once again converge in the Philippines to share their expertise, knowledge, studies and best practices. It aims to identify and put into action long lasting, concrete and doable solutions for river problems.

Those interested to participate and register for the second International River Summit may call the summit secretariat at (02) 975-5112.

Meanwhile, the Marikina City and the Quizon family declare July as the Month of Smiles through a star-studded show titled Gabi ni Dolphy at the Marikina Sports Center on July 25. It is a night of live performances and film showings, as well as games and raffle prizes. Tickets (VIP – P150 and General Admission — P100) are available at Marikina Sports Center. Proceeds of the show will go to the Dolphy Aid Para sa Pinoy Foundation and Marikina Watershed Green Foundation. For event and sponsorship inquiries, call (02) 985-2227 or e-mail forenaft.2010@gmail.com.
